The Camp will provide an opportunity for children ages 7 to 12 to experience the theme: Pieces of the Past: Our Heritage Valley and promote understanding and pride in the culture of the Anthracite Region.

The children will: establish friendships among children from different ethnic backgrounds, experience the contrast between their life and that of a child in earlier times, and participate in and learn the heritage of the region.

The camp will be conducted by professional staff and qualified volunteers.

Have Fun!
