New Exhibition at the Anthracite Heritage Museum Through May!

A new exhibition entitled Wales in America is open at the Anthracite Heritage Museum and will be in place through Monday, May 31, 2010. The exhibition tells the story of the Welsh mining industry and the migration of Welsh miners to the Pennsylvanian coalfields and to other parts of the USA and is arranged by the Welsh Assembly Government in New York in association with the National Museum Wales, National Library of Wales, National Union of Miners, the South Wales Miners' Library, and the St. David's Society of Lackawanna County.

The Pennsylvania Anthracite Heritage Museum is located in McDade Park, off Keyser Avenue, in Scranton (Exits 182 or 191B off I-81, and Exit 122 from I-476). The museum is open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and Sunday from noon to 5:00 p.m. Admission is charged. Please call the Anthracite Heritage Museum at 570-963-4804 for more information or visit us at www.anthracitemuseum.org on the World Wide Web.

The Pennsylvania Anthracite Heritage Museum is administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission. Individuals with disabilities who need special assistance or accommodations to visit the museum should call the museum at 570-963-4804, in advance, to discuss their needs. Pennsylvania TDD relay service is available at (800) 654-5984.
