

Anthracite Heritage Museum will feature Spring Tea Time!

Pictured from left to right are: Barbara Powell, Margaret Reese, Mary Theresa Montoro, Vivian Cleveland, Pam Frazier, Juliana Piccini and Linda Schuller. Absent from this photograph are Jacquelyn Harris and Janet Loewe.

Scranton — The Anthracite Heritage Museum is hosting Spring Tea Time at the museum located in McDade Park, on Saturday, April 16, 2016 at 1:30 p.m. Plan to attend this gracious tea and enjoy delectable scones, savories, and a variety of teas. Story artist and entertainer, Rosalind Benton, will capture your attention with her interactive program. There will also be a basket raffle and local artisan jewelry boutique!

Reservations are required by April 8th. A donation of $20 is requested. Please call 570-963-4804. Youth aged 12 and over are welcome!

This program is supported, in part, by a Lackawanna County Arts and Culture grant, a program of Lackawanna County Commissioners Patrick O'Malley, Jerry Notarianni and Lauren A. Cummings.

The Pennsylvania Anthracite Heritage Museum is located in McDade Park, off Keyser Avenue, in Scranton (Exits 182 or 191-B off I-81, and Exit 122, Keyser Avenue, from I-476). The museum is open Tuesday through Saturday from 9 am to 5 pm and Sunday, 12 noon to 5 pm. For more information or directions, call (570) 963-4804 or visit www.anthracitemuseum.org.

The Anthracite Heritage Museum is administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission in partnership with the Anthracite Heritage Museum and Iron Furnaces Associates.

The Anthracite Heritage Museum is one of 25 historic sites and museums administered by Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission as part of the Pennsylvania Trails of History®. For more information, visit www.PATrailsOfHistory.com.

Media contact: Margaret Reese or Barbara Powell, 570-963-4804